

Drinking Water Inspectorate publishes 2024 report

The Drinking Water Inspectorate (DWI), which is responsible for regulating drinking water quality, has today published its Annual Report for 2024. It states that drinking water quality in Northern Ireland is of a high standard.

Infrastructure Minister visits County Fermanagh to discuss roads and traffic issues

Infrastructure Minister Liz Kimmins visited County Fermanagh where she met with local residents and elected representatives and discussed a range of roads and traffic issues.

DAERA awards third company £4million to advance Sustainable Utilisation of Livestock Slurry

Natural World Products (NWP) has been awarded £4million to help Northern Ireland's agriculture sector reduce excess phosphorus from livestock slurry, as part of the further roll out of Lough Neagh Action Plan.

Update from the Department for Infrastructure about the Belfast Rapid

Transport 2 Project

The Department for Infrastructure has today provided an update in relation to the Belfast Rapid Transport 2 Project.

The Public Transport and Journey Planning in Northern Ireland 2024/25 report published

The Public Transport and Journey Planning in Northern Ireland 2024/25 report has been published today.