

Emergency Care Waiting Time Statistics (October– December 2025)

The Department of Health (DoH) today published statistics on the time spent in emergency care departments (ED) throughout Northern Ireland during the months of October, November, and December 2025.

Agencies ready to respond to adverse weather

Multi-agency partners have met as preparations continue ahead of the rain forecast over the coming days.

Statement by Justice Minister on publication of court lists

Justice Minister Naomi Long clarifies the process of publishing court lists.

Dedicated Controlled Schools' Unit launched

Education Minister, Paul Givan, has welcomed the formal launch of the Education Authority's Controlled Schools' Unit (CSU).

First Minister and deputy First Minister welcome Catherine Connolly, President of Ireland to Stormont Castle

First Minister Michelle O'Neill and deputy First Minister Emma Little-Pengelly today welcomed Catherine Connolly, President of Ireland, to Stormont Castle during her visit to Belfast.