

FS to attend G20 Leaders' Summit in Osaka, Japan

The Financial Secretary, Mr Paul Chan, will depart for Osaka, Japan, at around midnight on June 27 (Thursday) to attend the Group of Twenty (G20) Leaders' Summit, which will be held on June 28 and 29, as part of the delegation of the People's Republic of China.

The Summit provides a platform for leaders of the world's major economies to discuss economic, financial, political and other areas for co-operation.

Mr Chan will return to Hong Kong in the evening on June 29. In his absence, the Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury, Mr James Lau, will act as the Financial Secretary on June 27 and 28, while the Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development, Mr Edward Yau, will act as the Financial Secretary on June 29.

---

Hongkong Post extends EPS EasyCash for Senior Citizens service launched in collaboration with EPS Company to all post offices

Hongkong Post announced today (June 24) the extension of the EPS EasyCash for Senior Citizens service together with EPS Company to all post offices and mobile post offices on July 2. This service offers an alternative and convenient means of cash withdrawal for senior citizens by enabling them to withdraw small amounts of cash in their local community.

Hongkong Post launched the EPS EasyCash for Senior Citizens service at seven designated post offices on April 27, 2018, based on the advice of the Hong Kong Monetary Authority and Hongkong Post's own operational considerations. This service extension will further complement the existing cash withdrawal network for senior citizens.

Holders of Senior Citizen Cards can withdraw cash in multiples of $100 using their bank cards issued by EPS member banks with an ATM function at any post office without making purchases or paying transaction fees, subject to a cap of $500 for each transaction and a maximum of two transactions per bank card per day. The elderly are welcome to use the EPS EasyCash for Senior Citizens service at post offices during business hours.

---

Red flag hoisted at Clear Water Bay First Beach

Attention TV/radio announcers:

Please broadcast the following as soon as possible:

Here is an item of interest to swimmers.

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (June 24) that due to inclement weather, the red flag has been hoisted at Clear Water Bay First Beach in Sai Kung District. Beach-goers are advised not to swim at the beach.

---

Red flag lowered at Big Wave Bay Beach

Attention TV/radio announcers:

Please broadcast the following as soon as possible and repeat it at regular intervals:

Here is an item of interest to swimmers.

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department said today (June 24) that the red flag at Big Wave Bay Beach in Southern District, Hong Kong Island has been lowered and the beach has been reopened.

The red flag was hoisted at the beach earlier on due to the uneven sandy area.

---

Public forum on proposed guidelines on # election-related activities in respect of the District Council Election

The following is issued on behalf of the Electoral Affairs Commission:

The Electoral Affairs Commission will hold a public forum tomorrow (June 25) on the proposed guidelines on election-related activities in respect of the District Council Election.

"Members of the public are welcome to express their views at the public forum," a Commission spokesman said today (June 24).

The forum will be held from 7pm to 9pm at the Quarry Bay Community Hall, 1 Greig Road, Quarry Bay, Hong Kong.

The proposed guidelines were released on June 11 for public consultation. The public consultation period will last for 30 days until July 10.

Written representations can be submitted to the Commission's Secretariat by post at 10/F, Harbour Centre, 25 Harbour Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong, by fax (2511 1682) or email (eacengq@eac.hk) by July 10. Late representations will not be considered.

The proposed guidelines can be downloaded from the Commission's website (www.eac.hk). They are also available for public inspection at the Registration and Electoral Office and the Home Affairs Enquiry Centres of District Offices.

For enquiries, please call 2827 1269.