Special traffic arrangements for race meeting in Sha Tin tomorrow

Police advise motorists that special traffic arrangements will be implemented in Sha Tin to facilitate the race meeting tomorrow (April 22).

The arrangements will come into effect two hours before the start of the first race and will last until the crowds have dispersed after the race meeting.

Appropriate traffic signs will be put up and police will be on hand to guide motorists.

The Police also appeal to people going to Sha Tin Racecourse for the race meeting and to Happy Valley Racecourse for cross betting to make maximum use of public transport.

Parking spaces at the two racecourses are available only to holders of appropriate permits issued by Hong Kong Jockey Club and any vehicles illegally parked will be towed away.

Lazy Lion gets HK moving

To encourage the public to increase their physical activity and prevent non-communicable diseases, the Department of Health launched the "Healthy Hong Kong 2025 | Move for Health" Campaign and its mascot Lazy Lion in December 2018.

News.gov.hk spoke to a Centre for Health Protection Senior Medical and Health Officer and some members of the public to find out how Lazy Lion is helping Hong Kong people take the first step to "move for health" and build an active lifestyle.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (April 21) in both text and video format.
