

Special traffic arrangements for race meeting in Sha Tin

Police advise motorists that special traffic arrangements will be implemented in Sha Tin to facilitate the race meeting today (April 14).

The arrangements will come into effect two hours before the start of the first race and will last until the crowds have dispersed after the race meeting.

Appropriate traffic signs will be put up and police will be on hand to guide motorists.

The Police also appeal to people going to Sha Tin Racecourse for the race meeting and to Happy Valley Racecourse for cross betting to make maximum use of public transport.

Parking spaces at the two racecourses are available only to holders of appropriate permits issued by Hong Kong Jockey Club and any vehicles illegally parked will be towed away.

Innotech transforms construction

Hong Kong's first safety experience training centre for the construction industry was launched at the Hong Kong Institute of Construction. The institute offers more than 200 courses incorporating simulation-based training for secondary school students, transferees and industry practitioners.

News.gov.hk spoke to the institute's Director Francis Wong, Supervising Instructor (Welding) Chung Kai-man and two students to learn more about the innovative training facilities.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (April 14) in both text and video format.
