Yellow fire danger warning

Attention duty announcers, radio and TV stations:

Yellow fire danger warning

The fire danger situation today (March 28) is yellow and the risk of fire is high. People are urged to prevent fires breaking out and hikers should also be vigilant.

New life for old school

The Lok Sin Tong Benevolent Society, Kowloon (LST) worked with the Government to convert the Lok Sin Tong Primary School campus in Kowloon City into transitional housing with affordable rent to help relieve the financial burden for low-income families who have been waiting for public rental housing.

News.gov.hk spoke to some of the tenants to find out how the project has helped improve their lives and to the LST about the project's design concept.

The story is available at www.news.gov.hk/eng/feature today (March 28) in text and video format.

Fatal traffic accident in Sheung Shui

Police are investigating a fatal traffic accident in Sheung Shui in the early hours today (March 28) in which a 27-year-old man died.

At 0.50am, a private car driven by a 39-year-old man reportedly knocked down the 27-year-old man when it was reversing in a car park in Hung Kiu San Tsuen, Man Kam To Road. After the impact, the private car left the scene.

Sustaining serious head injuries, the 27-year-old man was rushed to Prince Wales Hospital in unconscious state and was certified dead at 2.30am.

The private car driver returned to the scene subsequently, and was arrested for drink driving and dangerous driving causing death. He is being detained for further enquiries.

Investigation will be conducted by the Special Investigation Team of Traffic, New Territories North.

Anyone who witnessed the accident or has any information to offer is urged to contact the investigating officers at 3661 3819 or 3661 3818.
