Special traffic arrangements for race meeting in Sha Tin tomorrow

Police advise motorists that special traffic arrangements will be implemented in Sha Tin to facilitate the race meeting tomorrow (May 26).

The arrangements will come into effect two hours before the start of the first race and will last until the crowds have dispersed after the race meeting.

Appropriate traffic signs will be put up and police will be on hand to guide motorists.

The Police also appeal to people going to Sha Tin Racecourse for the race meeting and to Happy Valley Racecourse for cross betting to make maximum use of public transport.

Parking spaces at the two racecourses are available only to holders of appropriate permits issued by Hong Kong Jockey Club and any vehicles illegally parked will be towed away.

Textile past spins future fashion

The Mills revitalisation project has turned old textile factories in Tsuen Wan into a destination for innovation, business, experiential retail, arts, culture and learning.

News.gov.hk spoke to the project organiser and a start-up to find out how the revitalised factories boost the growth of innovative start-ups in the fashion, textile and technology industries while engaging the community in the culture and art of textiles.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (May 25) in text and video format.
