

Penumbral lunar eclipse in Hong Kong on June 6

This year's second penumbral lunar eclipse will occur in Hong Kong in the small hours of June 6 (Saturday). If weather permits, the event can be best observed at most places with an unobstructed view towards the southwest. Details of this penumbral lunar eclipse are as follows:

Date	Time	Phenomenon	Elevation	Direction (Azimuth)
June 5 (Friday)	6.38pm	Moonrise	-1 degree	East-southeast (112 degrees)
June 6 (Saturday)	1.43am	Moon enters penumbra	41 degrees	South-southwest (207 degrees)
	3.25am	Maximum eclipse	27 degrees	Southwest (229 degrees)
	5.07am	Moon leaves penumbra	8 degrees	West-southwest (242 degrees)

A penumbral lunar eclipse occurs when the moon only enters the penumbra of the Earth but not the umbra. During the event, the moon will become slightly dimmer. The eclipse will begin at 1.43am and end at 5.07am, with the maximum eclipse occurring at 3.25am.

For the latest weather conditions and the astronomical observation conditions on June 6, please refer to the 9-day Weather Forecast issued by the Hong Kong Observatory (www.hko.gov.hk/en/wxinfo/currwx/fnd.htm) and the Weather Information for Astronomical Observation webpage (www.hko.gov.hk/en/gts/astronomy/astro_portal.html).

The next lunar eclipse observable in Hong Kong will occur on November 30 this year. It will also be a penumbral lunar eclipse.

Two illegal workers jailed

Two illegal workers comprising one Indian and one Vietnamese were jailed by Shatin Magistrates' Courts yesterday (May 20).

During operation "Greenlane" conducted on March 10, Immigration Department (ImmD) investigators raided a garbage collection point in Tsuen Wan. A male Indian illegal worker, aged 40, was arrested while working as an odd job worker. Upon identity checking, he produced for inspection a recognisance form issued by the ImmD, which prohibits him from taking employment. Further investigation revealed that he was a non-refoulement claimant. An employer suspected of employing the illegal worker was also arrested and the investigation is ongoing.

In addition, during operation "Breakthrough" conducted on May 18, ImmD investigators raided a restaurant in Tseung Kwan O. A female Vietnamese illegal worker, aged 53, was arrested while working as an odd job worker. An employer suspected of employing the illegal worker was also arrested and an investigation is ongoing.

The two illegal workers were charged at Shatin Magistrates' Courts yesterday with taking employment after landing in Hong Kong unlawfully and remaining in Hong Kong without the authority of the Director of Immigration or while being a person in respect of whom a removal order or deportation order was in force. They pleaded guilty to the charge and were each sentenced to 15 months' imprisonment. Meanwhile, the Vietnamese female was also charged with one count of using a forged Hong Kong identity card and one count of remaining in Hong Kong without the authority of the Director after landing in Hong Kong unlawfully. She was sentenced to 12 months' and 15 months' imprisonment respectively. All sentences are to run concurrently for a total of 15 months' imprisonment.

The ImmD spokesman warned that, as stipulated in section 38AA of the Immigration Ordinance, illegal immigrants or people who are the subject of a removal order or a deportation order are prohibited from taking any employment, whether paid or unpaid, or establishing or joining in any business. Offenders are liable upon conviction to a maximum fine of $50,000 and up to three years' imprisonment. The Court of Appeal has issued a guideline ruling that a sentence of 15 months' imprisonment should be applied in such cases. Under the prevailing laws, it is an offence to use or possess a forged Hong Kong identity card or a Hong Kong identity card related to another person. Offenders are liable to prosecution and a maximum penalty of a $100,000 fine and up to 10 years' imprisonment.

The spokesman reiterated that it is a serious offence to employ people who are not lawfully employable. The maximum penalty is imprisonment for three years and a fine of $350,000. The High Court has laid down sentencing guidelines that the employer of an illegal worker should be given an immediate custodial sentence. According to the court sentencing, employers must take all practicable steps to determine whether a person is lawfully employable prior to employment. Apart from inspecting a prospective employee's identity card, the employer has the explicit duty to make enquiries regarding the person and ensure that the answers would not cast any reasonable doubt concerning the lawful employability of the person. The court will not accept failure to do so as a defence in proceedings. It is also an offence if an employer fails to inspect the job seeker's valid travel document if the job seeker does not have a Hong Kong permanent identity card. The maximum penalty for failing to inspect such a document is imprisonment for one year and a fine of $150,000.

Under the existing mechanism, the ImmD will, as a standard procedure, conduct initial screenings on vulnerable persons, including illegal workers, illegal immigrants, sex workers and foreign domestic helpers who are arrested during any operation, with a view to ascertaining whether they are trafficking in persons (TIP) victims. When any TIP indicator is revealed in the initial screening, the officers will conduct a full debriefing and identification by using a standardised checklist to ascertain the presence of TIP elements, such as threats and coercion in the recruitment phase and the nature of exploitation. Identified TIP victims will be provided with various forms of support and assistance, including urgent intervention, medical services, counselling, shelter, temporary accommodation and other supporting services. The ImmD calls on TIP victims to report crimes to the relevant departments.

June 2020 adjustment in ceiling prices for dedicated LPG filling stations

The Electrical and Mechanical Services Department today (May 21) announced an adjustment to the auto-LPG (liquefied petroleum gas) ceiling prices for dedicated LPG filling stations from June 1 to June 30, 2020, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the contracts of the dedicated LPG filling stations.

A department spokesman said that the adjustment on June 1, 2020, reflects the movement of the LPG international price in May 2020. The adjusted auto-LPG ceiling prices for dedicated LPG filling stations will range from $2.57 to $3.13 per litre, representing an increase of $0.44 per litre.

The spokesman said that the auto-LPG ceiling prices were adjusted according to a specified pricing formula. The formula comprises two elements – the LPG international price and the LPG operating price. The LPG international price is the LPG international price of the preceding month. The LPG operating price is adjusted on the first day of February every year according to the movement in the Composite Consumer Price Index in the previous year.

The auto-LPG ceiling prices for respective dedicated LPG filling stations in June 2020 are as follows:

Location of Dedicated LPG Filling Station	Auto-LPG Ceiling Price in June 2020 (HK$/litre)	Auto-LPG Ceiling Price in May 2020 (HK$/litre)
Fung Yip Street, Chai Wan	3.13	2.69
Ngo Cheung Road, West Kowloon	3.13	2.69
Sham Mong Road, Mei Foo	2.79	2.35
Yip Wong Road, Tuen Mun	2.79	2.35
Marsh Road, Wan Chai	2.78	2.34
Fung Mat Road, Sheung Wan	2.71	2.27

Wai Lok Street, Kwun Tong	2.71	2.27
Yuen Chau Tsai, Tai Po	2.71	2.27
Cheung Yip Street, Kowloon Bay	2.76	2.32
Kwai On Road, Kwai Chung	2.76	2.32
Hang Yiu Street, Ma On Shan	2.57	2.13
Tak Yip Street, Yuen Long	2.57	2.13

The spokesman said that the details of the LPG international price and the auto-LPG ceiling price of each dedicated LPG filling station have been uploaded to the department website www.emsd.gov.hk. They are also posted at dedicated LPG filling stations to enable the trades to monitor the price adjustment.

Details of the pricing adjustment mechanism for dedicated LPG filling stations can also be viewed under the "What's New" section of the department website at www.emsd.gov.hk/en/what_s_new/current/index.html.
