

20 million illegal erectile dysfunction pills seized as MHRA warns against risky online buys

People are urged to avoid risky online buys and protect their health, as the MHRA seizes over 4.4 million doses of unlicensed erectile dysfunction medicines in 2025 alone.

Communities set to benefit from 13 new bathing spots proposed across England

Proposed sites include the first ever on the River Thames in London

Communities set to benefit from 13 new bathing spots proposed across England

Proposed sites include the first ever on the River Thames in London

UK announces £6m humanitarian drought response funding to Somalia

The UK Minister for International Development and Africa, Baroness Jenny Chapman, concluded her first visit to Somalia where she also announced a £6 million in new humanitarian funding to Somalia.

Environment Secretary speech on food security, resilience and standards

Environment Secretary Emma Reynolds' speech on Food Security, Resilience & Standards: UK Agricultural Strategy in Europe at the British Ambassador's Residence in Paris