

Thousands to be supported into work as government reforms welfare system

Hundreds of thousands of sick or disabled people will be offered voluntary help towards employment as part of a package of measures coming into force today (6 April) that will encourage work and save taxpayers around £1 billion...

First wave of national Young Futures Hubs open to turn the tide on youth services decline

First eight 'Young Futures Hubs' opening in Birmingham, Brighton and Hove, Bristol, County Durham, Leeds, Manchester, Nottingham, and Tower Hamlets

Prime Minister: No matter the global uncertainty, I'm on the side of the British people

The Prime Minister has vowed to "always be on the side" of the British people as changes today help workers, pensioners, and families with the cost of living.

Record year for gang busts and knife seizures

New figures show a record year for County Lines enforcement, with more gang leaders charged and knives seized than ever before, backed by £34m in new funding.

Independent champion for Armed Forces appointed as new team stands up

The UK's first ever Armed Forces Commissioner has been appointed by the Defence Secretary John Healey MP.