

Pair guilty after waste dumped in Norfolk

Surveillance cameras spot vehicles – five now prosecuted over village dumps

Government crack down on pension scams

Pension savers will be better protected from scams under new plans announced today (Tuesday 9 June 2026), as the Government acts to stay ahead of increasingly sophisticated fraudsters who rob people of their lifetime savings.

Lord Vallance speech to London Tech Week

Science Minister Lord Vallance's speech to London Tech Week, Tuesday 9 June.

Improvement notice issued to Hertfordshire County Council: January 2024

An improvement notice issued to Hertfordshire County Council following an Ofsted inspection in July 2023.

24 universities and colleges awarded investment to boost student places and strengthen UK defence industry

Universities across England awarded a share of £80 million to offer up to 2,500 student places, as well as help build new facilities to support increased capacity growth over the next decade.