

News story: Tate Trustee appointment

Roland Rudd is a passionate supporter of the arts and led the Tate's Corporate Advisory Group for ten years. He was previously a board member of the Royal Opera House.

He is Chairman of Finsbury, a global communications consultancy. Before founding Finsbury, he was a financial journalist at the Financial Times, the Sunday Correspondent and the Times.

He is also Chairman of Governors of Millfield School, Chairman of Open Britain, a trustee of Speakers for Schools, trustee of the Bayreuth Festival, and an Ambassador for the 'Made by Dyslexia' campaign.

The role is not remunerated and this appointment has been made in accordance with the Cabinet Office's Governance Code on Public Appointments.

Under the Code, any significant political activity undertaken by an appointee in the last five years must be declared. This is defined as including holding office, public speaking, making a recordable donation, or candidature for election. Roland Rudd has declared that he has made recordable donations to Tessa Jowell, and made donations and held office in relation to Britain Stronger in Europe. Details can be obtained from the Electoral Commission website.

---

News story: GRECO: UK successfully completes 4th round compliance procedure

The Group of States Against Corruption (GRECO) publishes its second fourth round compliance report on the United Kingdom.

The Group of States Against Corruption (GRECO), today (10 November 2017) published its second fourth round compliance report on the United Kingdom.

The report, adopted by GRECO plenary in March 2017, reviews implementation of the United Kingdom's recommendations in respect of corruption prevention among Members of Parliament, Judges and Prosecutors. It concludes that, of the 8 recommendations issued to the UK in 2012*, 7 have now been implemented and one partially implemented. The report commends the authorities of the United Kingdom for the substantial measures taken in order to implement the recommendations and terminates the fourth round compliance procedure in respect of the United Kingdom, making the United Kingdom the first country to conclude the GRECO fourth round.

*The recommendations were adopted by the GRECO Plenary on 19 October 2012 and published on 6 March 2013.

---

Policy paper: Shoreham Adur tidal walls scheme: latest update

Updated: September updates added.

More information on what the Environment Agency is doing to reduce flood risk along the River Adur.

---

Policy paper: Shoreham Adur tidal walls scheme: ecology

The Environment Agency is committed to building the Shoreham Adur Tidal Walls scheme efficiently and minimising the impacts on wildlife at the same time. They are doing this by monitoring wildlife and creating habitats through landscaping.

---

Policy paper: Shoreham Adur tidal walls scheme: reaches E1, E2 and E3

Updated: Update to data 15 December 2017.

Construction updates to Tollhouse Bridge, Ropetackle and the Old Railway.