

Deputy PM tells Parliament: Back reforms to get Britain building

The Planning and Infrastructure Bill will have its Second Reading in Parliament today.

Women leaders gather in Leeds to help unlock SME business growth

Female entrepreneurs, senior industry representatives and local leaders came together at the UKEF 'Northern Women in Business' reception in Leeds.

Television personality Ant Middleton banned as company director over unpaid taxes

His company owed more than £1 million in corporation tax and VAT when it went into liquidation

Grenfell Tower site update March 2025

A summary of current activity at the Grenfell Tower site.

Scottish Anti-Illicit Trade Group relaunches to combat counterfeit crime

The Scottish Anti-Illicit Trade Group (SAITG) has relaunched this month, with the aim of combating counterfeiting and intellectual property crime in Scotland.