

Chancellor Rachel Reeves speech at the Scientific Superpower Conference

Chancellor Rachel Reeves has today (3 June) delivered a speech at the Scientific Superpower Conference.

Statement: Foreign Office summons Russian Ambassador – 3 June 2026

The Russian Ambassador was summoned for a meeting following continued strikes on Ukraine, and Russia's violation of NATO airspace last week after a drone hit a Romanian residential building.

Guidance: Official veterinary surgeon (OVS) notes

Changes to import controls for animals and products of animal origin.

Major new package of support for young people announced with Kings Trust

The Government is backing The King's Trust's new youth opportunity initiative with £10 million of funding, launched today at Buckingham Palace

The Spark June

We've published the June edition of The Spark, our quarterly newsletter that includes the latest updates from across our organisation.