

Tougher rules on political interference to keep UK elections secure

Foreign actors will no longer be able to use their money to interfere in the UK's elections, as part of the biggest expansion of democratic participation in a generation

---

Update on the procurement for Digital Gilt Instrument (DIGIT) Pilot

The government has appointed HSBC as the platform provider for the Digital Gilt Instrument (DIGIT) pilot issuance following a competitive procurement process.

---

National review calls for urgent action to protect vulnerable unborn babies and infants

A national child safeguarding review has called for urgent action to better protect vulnerable unborn babies and infants, following the tragic death of baby Victoria Marten.

---

Every child caught with a knife to get tailored support

Every child caught carrying a knife in England and Wales will be given a mandatory targeted plan to stop them reoffending and protect the public.

---

Largest ever enforcement workforce protecting waterways from pollution

Environment Agency water enforcement team increases by almost fivefold since 2023