

Care leavers and ex offenders in the West Midlands helped into jobs through new partnership between government and leading businesses

Greene King, Severn Trent and other leading UK businesses have joined forces with central and local Government to help more care leavers, ex-offenders and young people with mental health challenges in the West Midlands into ...

His Majesty the King visits APHA grey squirrel contraceptive work

His Majesty the King visited APHA's Wildlife team in Yorkshire on Tuesday 26 May

Corporate report: Office for Environmental Protection framework document

The document sets out the broad framework within which the Office for Environmental Protection operates.

Flagship APHA facility marks 50 years of wildlife science

Animal and Plant Health Agency's National Wildlife Management Centre marks landmark half century of protecting animal and human health

Veterinary Medicines Digital Service update: New digital variation application process

From 28 May 2026 applicants will benefit from a streamlined digital experience when submitting Marketing Authorisation variation applications.