

Insolvency Service is making 'meaningful improvements' to the insolvency system

The latest 'Confidence in the Regime' report draws on the views of insolvency practitioners, directors, academics and legal professionals as well as people in debt and creditors.

UN Human Rights Council 62: UK Statement for the Interactive Dialogue on Anti-Personnel Mines

UK Statement for the Interactive Dialogue on Anti-Personnel Mines. Delivered at the 62nd Human Rights Council in Geneva.

Lebanese Army Commander Ends Official Visit to the United Kingdom

Discussions focused on the UK's support for the Lebanese Armed Forces and progress towards a durable ceasefire.

Local community names new Wylfa power station

GBE-N has announced that the new nuclear plant on Anglesey will be called Gwyndod Power Station, a name chosen by the local community.

UK launches first ever taskforce to strengthen climate security

Leading security, military and academics have joined forces with the government to boost the UK's preparedness for the security impacts of climate change.