

Report by the Director of the OSCE's Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights (ODIHR): UK response, March 2026

The UK welcomes ODIHR Director Telalian to the Permanent Council and reiterates its strong support for ODIHR's work on democracy, human rights and the rule of law.

EREBUS: reducing risk through live flight testing

Creating a capability to test UK defensive aid systems (DAS) in real-world flight conditions before integration onto frontline aircraft.

£14 million funding boost to power UK space technology innovation

UK businesses can today apply for a share of up to £14.7 million in funding from the UK Space Agency, unlocking new opportunities to develop cutting-edge space technologies and strengthen the UK's industrial capability.

Record-breaking order for British Steel as UK and Nigeria sign landmark £746 million ports deal

UK Export Finance announces support for UK exporters to supply high-value projects in Nigeria.

Government announces plans to tag thousands of extra offenders

Thousands more criminals will be tagged alongside changes to supervision that will focus probation time on the offenders who pose the greatest risk.