

Industrial emissions: proposed UK Best Available Techniques

Seeking views on proposed UK Best Available Techniques for reducing emissions across specific industrial sectors.

Foreign Secretary sets out new innovative development reforms

Tackling conflict and supporting fragile states at centre of the government's new approach to development.

Judicial Pension Board appointment of an independent member

The Lord Chancellor has approved the appointment, by the Chair of the Judicial Pension Board, of Tim Mpofu as an independent member.

UK-Taiwan Business Survey: Record Satisfaction with Operations

Taiwanese companies show strong interest in collaborating with the UK in AI and machine learning as well as renewable energy.

The Timms Review: Co-Chair Update, March 2026

This document sets out an update on the progress of the Timms Review of Personal Independence Payment (PIP), from the Review's co-chairs.