

Chief Secretary to the Prime Minister rewards “the doers not the talkers” with the introduction of performance-related pay for senior civil servants

The Government has today, 21 May, published its response to the recommendations of the independent Senior Salaries Review Body (SSRB) on pay for the Senior Civil Service (SCS) for 2026-27.

Organisations receive clear, accessible guidance on how to implement equality law in updated draft Code of Practice

Government lays the Equality and Human Rights Commission’s (EHRC) draft updated Code of Practice in Parliament.

Assessing the Impact of Energy Bill Support in 2022–23 on Bank Rate and Mortgage Rates

This note sets out how HMT assessed the estimated effect of the 2022–23 Energy Bill Support measures on Bank Rate and, in turn, on the cost of a new representative mortgage.

Assessing the Impact of Energy Bill Support in 2022–23 on Bank Rate and Mortgage Rates

This note sets out how HMT assessed the estimated effect of the 2022–23 Energy Bill Support measures on Bank Rate and, in turn, on the cost of a new representative mortgage.

Neighbourhood Guarantee to improve towns & cities across country

Communities' ambitions will be backed by a new Neighbourhood Guarantee, meaning cleaner streets, filled potholes and other vital public services for every area.