

Five Eyes science and technology

Dstl helps deliver the UK's contribution to the Five Eyes science and technology group, a long-standing international partnership collaborating on defence and security research activities.

Financial Ombudsman Service reform to deliver fast and impartial complaint resolution

The Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS) will undergo the most significant package of reforms since its inception.

Commonwealth Foreign Affairs Ministers' Meeting 2026

Foreign Secretary Yvette Cooper attended the 26th Commonwealth Foreign Affairs Ministers' Meeting at the Commonwealth Secretariat headquarters in London.

Statutory guidance: The Plant Varieties Act (Amendment) Regulations 2026

This Statutory Instrument amends the definition of a small farmer in section 9(10) of the Plant Varieties Act 1997.

Britain to lead fusion energy race to deliver energy security

Government sets out its vision for developing a commercial fusion industry in the UK that will deliver skilled jobs, investment and growth.