

Farmers lead the next wave of greener, smarter farming

New £2.3m fund backs 30 farm tech trials testing lower emission machinery, digital tools and peat-free compost to boost productivity and sustainability.

Farmers lead the next wave of greener, smarter farming

New £2.3m fund backs 30 farm tech trials testing lower emission machinery, digital tools and peat-free compost to boost productivity and sustainability.

Major expansion of colleges to train next generation of workers

Local colleges set to receive £570 million to expand training facilities and places to train the next generation of skilled workers

The third UK-EU Cyber Dialogue took place in Brussels

The third UK-EU Cyber Dialogue took place on 9-10 December. Both sides agreed to hold the next UK-EU Cyber Dialogue in London in 2026.

MI6 Chief says the “front line is everywhere” in first speech, as the UK faces new “age of uncertainty”

In her first public speech, the new Chief of MI6 Blaise Metreweli will set out how MI6 is tackling new and emerging threats to the UK and its allies.