

Outstanding service and devotion to duty recognised by His Majesty's Lord-Lieutenant of Gwynedd

The efforts of eight people from across Gwynedd have been recognised by the King's representative for the county.

Export or move plants and plant products from Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Check if you need a licence or phytosanitary certificate to export or move plants and plant products.

Global impact of UK health data resource highlighted in newly published paper

New analysis shows Clinical Practice Research Datalink has supported groundbreaking medical research across 29 countries with close to 3,800 published studies

Nuclear project academy goes national

The Nuclear Decommissioning Authority (NDA) is launching a UK-wide training programme to support the development of project professionals across the nuclear sector.

Tough new rules force suppliers to fix faulty smart meters

Families to save on their energy bills with new obligations for suppliers to fix smart meters more quickly, cutting waiting times for billpayers.