

Better community care thanks to nursing funding boost

Around 80,000 people will be better supported in the community following an increase in funding for nursing care.

IPO confirms continued funding for specialist IP crime unit

Three-year funding commitment alongside new industry partnership pilot.

Infrastructure Pipeline update signals future workforce needs

Workforce demand data central to next Pipeline, giving investors and industry a clearer view to support long-term planning for skills and investment

Professor Brian Bell commences role as new Head of the GES

Professor Bell commences his new role as the Head of the Government Economic Service today.

Suffragan Bishop of St. Germans: 9 March 2026

The King has approved the nomination of The Reverend James Treasure BSc, to the Suffragan See of St. Germans, in the Diocese of Truro.