

Press release: Discovering new maerl beds on the South Coast of Cornwall

New maerl beds discovered just off the coast are crucial in supporting other marine species.

Press release: Discovering new maerl beds on the South Coast of Cornwall

New maerl beds discovered just off the coast are crucial in supporting other marine species.

Scotland to have world's first peatland UNESCO World Heritage site

The Flow Country has been added to the UNESCO World Heritage List

Teesside man fined for failing to clear illegal waste site

Illegal waste site: A man has been fined for failing to comply with a court order to clear waste the site after an investigation by the Environment Agency.

Foreign Secretary's remarks at ASEAN Foreign Minister's Meeting in Laos

The Foreign Secretary gave remarks at the UK Post Ministerial Conference with ASEAN Member States where he highlighted the UK's commitment to working together on shared issues.