

British High Commission celebrates Scottish-Pakistani ties at ‘Caledonian Ball’ in Lahore

Held at the historic Sir Ganga Ram Residence, Wednesday’s Caledonian Ball featured traditional bagpipe music, songs from the ‘When Mountains Meet’ collaboration between Scottish and local artists, and couture fashion from re...

Government vows to “unlock opportunities for young people across the country” ahead of National Apprenticeship Week

Young people across the country are to benefit from a clearer path into apprenticeships, as the Prime Minister vows to “unlock opportunities for young people across the country” ahead of National Apprenticeship Week.

UK and Bangladesh strengthen defence partnership with survey vessel sales agreement

The United Kingdom and the Bangladesh Navy have signed a government-to-government sales agreement for the former HMS Enterprise, an Echo-class hydrographic and oceanographic survey vessel.

Soldiers to get new AI capable radios, headsets and tablets with futuristic sensor data

British soldiers will be able to make faster, better decisions on the battlefield through thousands of new radios, headsets and tablets.

Britain's growth sectors to get major skills boost from new 'fast track' apprenticeships reforms

Young people will be given a quicker route into high-quality jobs on major projects as the Government slashes red tape to fast-track the process.