

UKHSA extends red heat-health alerts across England

The red heat-health alerts in place for the West Midlands, East Midlands, South East, South West, London, and East of England have now been extended.

UK and Malaysia launch negotiations on Digital Trade Agreement

The ambitious new agreement will remove barriers to digital trade and enable UK exporters to expand into high-tech markets.

Transparency data: What to keep: Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs guide to managing information

Guidance defining how long records should be retained before they are either transferred to National Archives for permanent preservation or securely destroyed.

Regulator launches inquiry into healthcare charity over safeguarding and financial concerns

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into St Andrew's Healthcare (registered charity 1104951).

New deal for young people to end 'degree by default' culture and boost youth apprenticeships

Government promises to deliver a “new deal for young people” with real opportunities to work and renewed social contract where hard work pays off