

Regulator launches investigation into football charity over financial concerns

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into Lutterworth Athletic Football Club (registered charity number: 1175765)

Government to cover travel costs of children with cancer

£10 million financial support package for families of children and young people with cancer to cover travel costs to and from appointments.

Building knowledge in blockchain technology across government

Science advice to help explore blockchain technology's potential, building understanding and identifying the challenges of applying it to public services.

Policy paper: PFAS Plan

A cross-government, science-led plan to understand impacts of PFAS on public health and the environment, with coordinated actions to minimise risks.

The Timms Review: Co-Chair Update, February 2026

This document sets out an update on the progress of the Timms Review of Personal Independence Payment (PIP), from the Review's co-chairs.