

A.I. used at sea for first time off coast of Scotland

The Royal Navy are using Artificial Intelligence as part of an exercise taking place in waters off the Hebrides.

Chief of the General Staff RUSI Land Warfare Conference 2021

General Mark Carleton Smith, The Chief of the General Staff RUSI Land Warfare Conference 2021

UK Ministers lead NATO charge on innovation

Defence Secretary Ben Wallace and Foreign Secretary Dominic Raab have backed NATO's vision of a technologically advanced, globally focused Alliance equipped to confront threats of the future.

Plans to bring vulnerable Afghan interpreters to the UK accelerated

Local staff who worked for the UK Government in Afghanistan, including many who worked as interpreters for UK forces in the country, will be eligible for expedited relocation to the UK under the Afghan Relocation and Assista...

Artificial Intelligence used at sea for first time

For the first time, Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) is being used by the Royal Navy at sea as part of Exercise Formidable Shield, which is currently taking place off the coast of Scotland.