

Armed Forces week

Armed Forces Week 2020 begins on Monday 22 June 2020 and supportive employers across the UK are gearing up to show the whole of the Armed Forces community some much deserved recognition.

£26.7 million engine support contract for Oxfordshire company

A £26.7 million contract has been awarded to supply and maintain outboard and inboard motors fitted to the MOD's small boats fleet.

Evaluating the benefit of licencing military aircraft engineers

Following the MAA's recommendation not to implement EMAR 66 and 147, this article provides the background analysis that justifies this decision.

RAF completes COVID support task at Kinloss

3 RAF Puma helicopters deployed to Kinloss Barracks to support the Scottish Ambulance Service (SAS) in the coronavirus fight head back to their Oxfordshire base.

Defence Secretary welcomes Ukraine receiving NATO Enhanced Opportunity Partner status

Ukraine has been granted increased access to opportunities that will help maintain and deepen cooperation between Allies and partners