

English National Opera's singing programme for people recovering from Covid-19 rolls out nationally

The ENO Breathe programme for Covid-19 patients is developed in collaboration with Imperial College Healthcare and will be rolled out nationally.

Cancellation of Trust board meeting

Due to the current urgent priority of the NHS response to the Covid-19 pandemic, the Trust board's meeting which was due to be held today has been cancelled.

Remembering Pedro Barte

Pedro Barte, a registered nurse who worked at Charing Cross Hospital, died in January 2021.

New AHSC Chair announced

Professor Sir Mark Walport, has been appointed chair of the Imperial College Academic Health Science Centre (AHSC) Strategic Partnership Board.

The first 'Better hospitals'

seminar available to watch

In our first 'Better hospitals' seminar we discuss how Covid-19 is influencing healthcare and hospital design.