

How does co-location power life sciences innovation? 'Better hospitals' seminar available to watch

In our third 'Better hospitals' seminar we discussed how hospitals, patients, healthcare innovators, researchers, and business work best together to tackle the major causes of disease and drive economic growth.

Trust prepares for second winter with Covid-19

Plans are in place to ensure we continue to provide high quality care for all our patients as we head into the autumn and winter while still responding to Covid-19.

ENO Breathe shortlisted for 2021 Royal Philharmonic Society Awards

The English National Opera's ENO Breathe programme has been shortlisted for the Royal Philharmonic Society's (RPS) 2021 Impact Award.

Trust teams up with Chelsea Foundation and Imperial Health Charity to improve community health

A new partnership with Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust and Chelsea Foundation has been announced, to improve the health and wellbeing of communities in north west London

Real world data analysis provides critical insight on vaccination programme and supports evidence that single dose reduces infection

Analysis of north west London data from the beginning of the national Covid-19 vaccination programme has further supported the evidence that a single dose of the Covid-19 vaccine is effective in reducing infection with coronavirus for up to 60 days after vaccination.