Macron compares anti-EU sentiment to Leprosy

President Macron has described the rise in anti-EU sentiment as "like leprosy", in an angry response to the growing success of political parties across the EU that are no longer prepared to accept every dictat from Germany, France and the EU.

Gerard Batten, the UKIP leader said: "In a medical and scientific first, the part of the European body politic that is dropping off is the healthy part, whilst the remainder remains sick to its core. The UK is and will be a happier and wealthier place once we finally leave, and if Brexit leads to a contagion of nation-state democracy across the continent this must be a very good thing for all the people's of Europe.

More than 50 activists have shut down a by-election hustings in Lewisham East, closing down the democratic debate, and preventing the public from making an informed decision at the ballot box.

UKIP Lewisham East candidate, David Kurten AM said: “It is an outrage that fascist ‘anti-fascist’ far-left thugs have closed down the Lewisham East By-Election hustings. There was no chance for voters to hear candidates answer questions. It is a dark day for democracy and free speech when a group of thugs has been allowed to close down a debate and stop voters from hearing and questioning legitimate political parties and make up their own minds who they wish to vote for.

“The police took the decision to close the hustings after just half an hour of opening speeches, but it would have been better if they had taken stronger action and arrested the mob of anti-democratic thugs for Public Order offences, as candidates and voters alike were intimidated by their actions. By allowing these fascist bullies to close down debate, it sends out a terrible message that a far-left mob can get their way by intimidating the public.”
