

Mapping out the future of farming

State-of-the-art computer software is helping to equip Scottish agriculture students with the skills they need to become the farmers of the future.

Hail to the sheaves: Winter Wheat Challenge winners announced at AgriScot

A group of Aberdeen-based students have proved outstanding in their field after winning the biggest ever SRUC/Mains of Loirston Winter Wheat Challenge.

Weighing up beef benefits

An interactive beef demonstration at AgriScot this month is set to highlight the herd management and profitability benefits of regularly weighing cattle.

Time running out for funding vote

The clock is ticking for people to cast their votes for an innovative community project at Scotland's Rural College.

Unleashing our full potential

As television audiences watch competition continue to heat up on The Apprentice, a new campaign has been launched to inspire staff and students at Scotland's Rural College through entrepreneurship.