

Backing British business: reforms to champion UK defence companies on the world stage

Defence Industrial Strategy will unveil reforms to champion British defence businesses to increase export sales through cutting red tape and expanded financial backing.