

Barrier to social housing now lifted for vulnerable people

New changes to remove a local connection requirement for young care leavers and domestic abuse survivors comes into effect today.