

Bay area opportunities abound

The Funding Scheme for Youth Entrepreneurship in the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area found success via providing the capital for 217 startups, with about 70 of them successfully establishing themselves in various innovation and entrepreneurial bases in Mainland cities. As a result, the Government has launched a second round to attract more young entrepreneurs.

Two such entrepreneurs share their startup experiences in Hong Kong and Mainland cities in the Greater Bay Area during an interview with news.gov.hk.

Additionally, a representative from a non-governmental organisation supporting the scheme highlights the help their programme provides, while the Under Secretary for Home and Youth Affairs, Mr Clarence Leung, reveals details about three other initiatives that promote youth entrepreneurship.

The story is available at www.news.gov.hk/eng/feature today (February 1) in text and video format.