

Beat the rush by getting your MOT done this summer

Motorists are being encouraged to bring their MOT forward if it's due in September, October or November 2020, to help beat the expected rush for tests.