

Beavers to be released in South West England in coming weeks

Natural England has approved the release of beavers at two projects in South West England.