

Belgo-British Conference 2025

The biennial conference saw business, academia, government and civil society debate shared challenges in national security, public health and societal cohesion.