

BEPS public consultation on the tax challenges of digitalisation

Date: 1 November 2017

Meeting Time: 09:30 – 17:15 (PDT)

Location: Warren Room, Simon Hall, 2745 Bancroft Way, School of Law the University of California, Berkeley, USA

About

As part of the ongoing work of the Task Force on the Digital Economy (TFDE), the OECD sought public comments on key issues identified in a request for input related to the tax challenges raised by digitalisation and the potential options to address these challenges.

This public consultation will focus on matters covered by the written submissions that have been received:

Persons wishing to apply to attend the public consultations are invited to click here to start their application for registration. Please indicate the organisation you are representing in the appropriate box of the registration form.

All interested persons (including those who have pre-registered online) are invited to attend. No further confirmation will be sent. An “overflow” room will be available if there is insufficient space in the main meeting room, and we encourage attendees to arrive early.
