

Better community care thanks to nursing funding boost

Around 80,000 people will be better supported in the community following an increase in funding for nursing care.