

Billions in pension surpluses to be unlocked

New proposals setting out how billions of pounds in DB pension scheme surpluses could be safely released have been launched today (10th June), helping unlock billions of pounds for the UK economy.