

Birdies and bees

Birdie, eagle and albatross are common golfing terms, but students at Scotland's Rural College have been learning the importance of considering both birds and bees in their golf course designs.