

Boost for British business as new partnership breaks down barriers to infrastructure delivery in South Africa

Chancellor launches new Infrastructure Partnership with South Africa, opening up significant investment and export opportunities for UK firms.