

Break-In Prevention Advice

Police Scotland reports that break-ins to homes continue to take place and that are often due to the lack of security. These break-ins are often committed by opportunists.

A large number of these break-ins are easily preventable.

To read about some simple crime prevention measures you can take to secure your property, please click here.