

Britain's once lost Mars lander gets its place in history with plaques at locations across the UK

Thirteen commemorative red plaques to be unveiled at locations across the UK to celebrate Beagle 2 – the first British and European spacecraft to successfully land on another planet.