

British Ambassador visits Peten to strengthen conservation of the Mayan Forest

UK assistance continues advancing forests protection and sustainable livelihoods of communities in Peten, as the British Ambassador endorses a conservation agreement during her visit.