

British Embassy announces second edition of “Great UK Day”

The event returns in 2025 as part of the UK Government’s ongoing growth strategy to keep supporting British businesses through cultural promotion and strengthening relations with Guatemala.