

British Hallmarking Council appoints three new members

The new members will be part of the British Hallmarking Council from January 2025 for a period of three years.